

▲ ALL ABOARD!

This summer – beginning on June 12 and running every weekend until September 26 – The Newt in Somerset has launched its Great Garden Escape. This delightful day trip will take you on a First-Class adventure, whisking you from London Paddington with Great Western Railway to The Newt's beautiful West Country estate. Enjoy a tour of its picturesque gardens, stroll in ancient woodland, tuck into lunch and cider tastings and learn about The Story of Gardening at its exhibition centre, rounding off the day with afternoon tea on the train home.

▲ DECORATIVE DETAILS

Inspired by the ornamentation of 18th-century French chateaux, Samuel & Sons' new 'Margaux' collection celebrates the aesthetic of traditional grandeur and reinterprets those elements in an exquisite range of passementerie. This includes elegant tassels, tiebacks, rosettes and fringing in subtle historic hues, featuring sophisticated handwork and intricate detailing. samuelandsons.com

HOUSE & GARDEN

SEPTEMBER 2021

FROM THE PUBLISHER

While enjoying the delights of late summer, we can also look forward to the particular pleasures of the new season. Now is a great time to plan those home improvements you have been wishing to make – a handsome Martin Moore kitchen is the ultimate in culinary chic, while Mylands' new paint collection is exactly what you need to give your rooms an exciting fresh look. Find inspiration further afield on a trip – the glorious scenery and alpine air of Switzerland offer a perfect break or, closer to home, enjoy a day out at The Newt in Somerset.
